

Stir Up One Another

The emotional ties that are formed in a community of people who genuinely care for one another goes without saying; it is in those communities that trust is forged. When we trust one another with our person we can begin to speak truth into each other's life. The writer of Hebrews expressed it this way: "Let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good deeds." (Hebrews 10:24)

At Genesis Institute we have embraced this truth by "considering how" to meet the needs of people through the various classes and programs. It is our intent in these programs to speak truth into lives so that God could "stir up" the heart and stimulate each individual to love and good deeds. Isn't that our heart's desire? We want to love well and do good deeds that others may grow and mature.

"We are asking God to
"stir up" hearts"

Thinking about, "the considering how" and the "stirring up" is something all of us can participate in. Our annual event, Evening of Stories Fundraiser is just around the corner. How blessed we are to have folks like you to consider the impact that the Genesis Institute has on the masses here in Spokane, Washington and around the world.

We are asking God to "stir up" hearts to give in a monetary way that we might continue and further the work but we need your help. Consider partnering with us as we seek to serve others and glorify God in this endeavor!
