

The Thread of Genesis

A message from Bill Iannuzzi—part of our Courageous Parenting Teaching Team:

It was a damp evening in September and the students began to enter the classroom with anticipation of a journey unknowingly that would change their lives forever! The subject matter could be found in any of these classes: Core Concepts, Storytelling, Spiritual Formation, and Courageous Parenting. “Discover Your Story, Live From Your Heart” isn’t a catch phrase, it is the intentional thread that is woven through the fabric of the Genesis Institute.

At its core, every class is about instructing one another with the thought of teaching others also. You have to get at your own heart discovering your story, unfolding your experiences in light of truth principles unearthed in the Bible. Once we begin to discover and understand our story we can begin the awesome opportunity and responsibility in sharing what we have learned with others.

Looking for ways to connect with others on a much deeper level? Taking a class will give you hands on experience that will help you to grow personally as well as teach others to discovery their story and live from their heart. Join us this October for an “Evening of Stories” to get a sneak peak of what God is doing in the lives of people in your neighborhood, in our community and around the world.

“Looking for ways to connect with others on a much deeper level?”
