

Invitation to Submission

Every aspect of Genesis Institute's ministry is founded on the principle of "Submitting to One Another." The very thought of submission conjures up pictures of someone buckling under the cruel thumb of a dictatorship. That's what the world would have you believe. Yet, in God's perspective it is a fundamental expression and attitude for each of His children. (Eph. 5:21)

No matter where you look at Genesis, you will see acts of submission. Whether we are counseling a hurting soul, teaching in a class with others, or simply opening our door to the community each day, we submit to one another. Recognizing God's authority over all things is the first step in understanding our role in how we live out our lives on a daily basis.

"..it is a fundamental expression and attitude for each of His children."

In regards to supporting Genesis, with every gift, donation, volunteer hour, sponsorship or prayer, you are submitting your time and treasure to God. Your act is a submission of your possessions. All of you are coming alongside to help others and make a difference.

We are so grateful for your partnering with us!
