The Wonder of Woman Course
PURPOSE & OBJECTIVES

1. To offer a course for woman which will help foster a deepening hunger for intimacy and friendship with God, interwoven with parts of my personal story.
2. To discover and discuss what may have been God's intended purpose in creating woman and to discuss some common challenges women face in contemporary culture.
3. To define "spiritual formation" and what it means to be a disciple of Christ living in the Kingdom of God here and now; the need for all six dimensions of our being to be transformed.
4. To introduce some key spiritual practices that help us make ourselves available to God for the purpose of heart transformation.
5. To offer opportunities for other women to share portions of their personal story as a means of giving a living, breathing picture of the challenges, tragedies, triumphs, and ultimately of hope when one perseveres as His beloved daughter.
6. To foster a place of community and fellowship, beyond the course time.
